

Dr. Rudolf Dirisamer

Vice-Chairman of the Board
Sigmund Freud Foundation

Born in 1946, doctorate in Social and Economic Sciences (Sociology), since 1992 member of the Board of Directors of the Sigmund Freud Society, and since 2003 Vice Chairman of the Sigmund Freud Foundation.

Freelance activity in research, planning and consulting in the fields of city development, building design and housing research (until 1977). 27 years as lecturer at various Austrian universities, including 20 years at the Academy of Fine Arts and 19 years at the University of Applied Arts in Vienna as well as at the Vienna Technical University and the University of Klagenfurt. 25 years at Bank Austria Creditanstalt (and its predecessor banks), with 18 years in executive positions. Publications on the sociology of the city and on the sociology of housing as well as on banking and art theory.

Founding Secretary General of the Club of Rome/Austrian Chapter (1988–1996).