

Facts Sigmund Freud Museum

Address	Berggasse 19, A-1090 Vienna (9th district, Alsergrund)
Contact	T: +43 1 319 15 96 E: office@freud-museum.at www.freud-museum.at
Year of Founding	Opening in 1971 with Anna Freud in attendance
Director	Monika Pessler (since 2014)
Governing Body	Sigmund Freud Foundation
Founder	Sigmund Freud Society
Support Assoc.	Society of Friends of the Sigmund Freud Museum American Friends of the Sigmund Freud Museum
Exhibition Space	550 m ²
Specific Features	Sigmund Freud lived and worked from 1891 to 1938 in the house at Berggasse 19, a typical Viennese house in the 'Gründerzeit' style of the turn of the century Renovated in 2020 with expanded space and new permanent exhibitions Original furnishings of the waiting room of Sigmund Freud's practice as well as parts of the private rooms Personal items, objects, and antiques from family collections Numerous original documents from estates, donations, and new acquisitions Film footage of Sigmund Freud and his family from the 1930s, compiled and annotated by Anna Freud "Hidden Thoughts of a Visual Nature": exhibition of selected works from the Sigmund Freud Museum's Conceptual Art Collection Showroom Berggasse 19: presentations of contemporary art Scholarship program "Fulbright Freud Visiting Lecturer of Psychoanalysis" Scientific events: Sigmund Freud Lecture, talks, presentations, and conferences

Sigm. Freud

MUSEUM

Library of Psychoanalysis: Europe's largest specialist library with approximately 40,000 media

Archive of the Sigmund Freud Museum

Opening Hours Wednesday to Monday & holidays 10 - 18 h
Tuesday closed

Admission Regular: 14 Euros
Friends of the Museum: free
Vienna City Card and Senior Citizens: 10 Euros
Students (< 27 years): 8,50 Euros
Pupils (12-18 years): 5 Euros
Children (< 12 years): free

Education Guided tours and special thematic tours (by appointment) in German and English

"Freud for the 'Little Scamps'": free education program for 5- to 12-year-olds

"Following the Footsteps of Sigmund Freud": guided city tours in German and English

Education programs for school pupils

Museum Shop Multilingual assortment of books and a wide range of souvenirs and gift items

Café Exclusive coffee and cakes, wine and champagne from Vienna, beer and organic juices

Online www.freud-museum.at www.facebook.com/sigmundfreudmuseum www.instagram.com/sigmundfreudmuseum www.youtube.com/sigmundfreudmuseum www.twitter.com/freudmuseum